

Name: _____

Definitions:

1. self-interest – putting yourself before others, even if it hurts them
2. entitlement – feeling that you deserve something
3. compassion – feeling pity and concern for the suffering of others
4. empathy – sharing and understanding the feelings of others

Greed is the root of all evil.
Strongly Agree	Mostly Agree	Mostly Disagree	Strongly Disagree
People who have money have it because they deserve it.
Strongly Agree	Mostly Agree	Mostly Disagree	Strongly Disagree
Power corrupts everyone who has it.
Strongly Agree	Mostly Agree	Mostly Disagree	Strongly Disagree
The more money you have, the better person you become.
Strongly Agree	Mostly Agree	Mostly Disagree	Strongly Disagree
Society must be divided into classes in order to function properly.
Strongly Agree	Mostly Agree	Mostly Disagree	Strongly Disagree
Money = Power
Strongly Agree	Mostly Agree	Mostly Disagree	Strongly Disagree
If people are poor, it is because they did something wrong.
Strongly Agree	Mostly Agree	Mostly Disagree	Strongly Disagree
If a person has a lot of money, he/she is more likely to share it with the poor.
Strongly Agree	Mostly Agree	Mostly Disagree	Strongly Disagree
If a person is greedy, he/she cannot change.
Strongly Agree	Mostly Agree	Mostly Disagree	Strongly Disagree
People who are poor take care of the people who have even less than they do.
Strongly Agree	Mostly Agree	Mostly Disagree	Strongly Disagree